Findon Manor Refurbished

Recently we were asked to supply the finishing touches to the refurbishment of this beautiful English Country Home. Originally from 1584 the house has seen many changes, Premium Art are proud to be part of their most recent and impressive make over. Underlining the current trend in combining classic old buildings with high quality contemporary art. Findon Manor selected 5 of our paintings to impress their guests.

Photo's of our paintings in situ will appear on our site shortly.

Business Program Launch

Are you a vibrant young business with public viewing space?
Would your business benefit from high quality canvas paintings?

We are currently looking for businesses with gallery space wishing to hang our pieces. Young vibrant cafes and restaurants are ideal, other businesses are also considered on an individual basis for this program. This Program would be mutually beneficial for all. PremiumArt get visibility on your premises, while your business space is enhanced for your customers at a sharp price. You have complete choice over which works you would like to display/own from our site. Your business would be listed on our site as a viewing location, and a list of the paintings available there.
